

A FOLLOW-UP FOR DANA

ABC Tutoring website prototype

A simpler way for parents to find a tutor
and request a session

Prototype findings and next steps
September 2026

A note from Dana

“Every student learns differently. I’ll help your family find someone who feels like the right fit.”

Dana

Owner, ABC Tutoring

Dana approves

What I heard from you

“I want parents to find the right tutor and book a session without everything going through my phone.”

Dana, owner of ABC Tutoring

Help parents choose

Filter by subject and grade. Compare prices, availability and teaching format.

Build trust

Show real tutor photos, personal introductions, credentials and testimonials.

Keep you in control

Collect requests for your approval and let you manage tutor availability.

Keep the first version simple

No payment or automated cancellation workflow. Parents can still call you when plans change.

Parents can request a session in one clear flow

The prototype keeps the decision in one place and uses plain language throughout.

01 Find the right tutor

Use subject and grade filters, then compare rates and open times.

02 Choose the session

Pick an available time and choose online or in person.

03 Share the essentials

Enter the parent's contact details and the student's first name, grade and subject.

04 Wait for your reply

The parent sees “pending approval” while you review the request.

No payment is collected.

REQUEST A SESSION ✕

Choose what works

This is a request. Dana will confirm with you after reviewing it.

1. Select an available time

☐ Tue, Sep 8 · 4:00 PM ☐ Thu, Sep 10 · 5:30 PM

☐ Sat, Sep 12 · 9:30 AM

2. Session format

☒ Online
Meet by video

☐ In person
At an agreed local location

3. Tell us about your student

Parent's name

Parent's email

Student's first name

Student's grade

Requested subject

Submit booking request →

No payment is collected. By submitting, you're asking Dana to review this time and contact you by email.

MEET YOUR TUTOR

Maya Thompson

Elementary learning specialist

I love helping children discover that learning can feel joyful. My sessions blend clear routines, games, and plenty of encouragement so students build skills without losing confidence.

$48 per hour
No payment today

Credentials

- ✓ M.Ed. Elementary Education
- ✓ 8 years classroom teaching
- ✓ Orton-Gillingham trained

Your booking desk keeps you in control

A simple private view gives you the final say over every request.

See every request

Parent, student, tutor, subject, format and requested time appear together.

Approve on your schedule

A request stays pending until you decide. Approval removes that time from availability.

Keep tutor times current

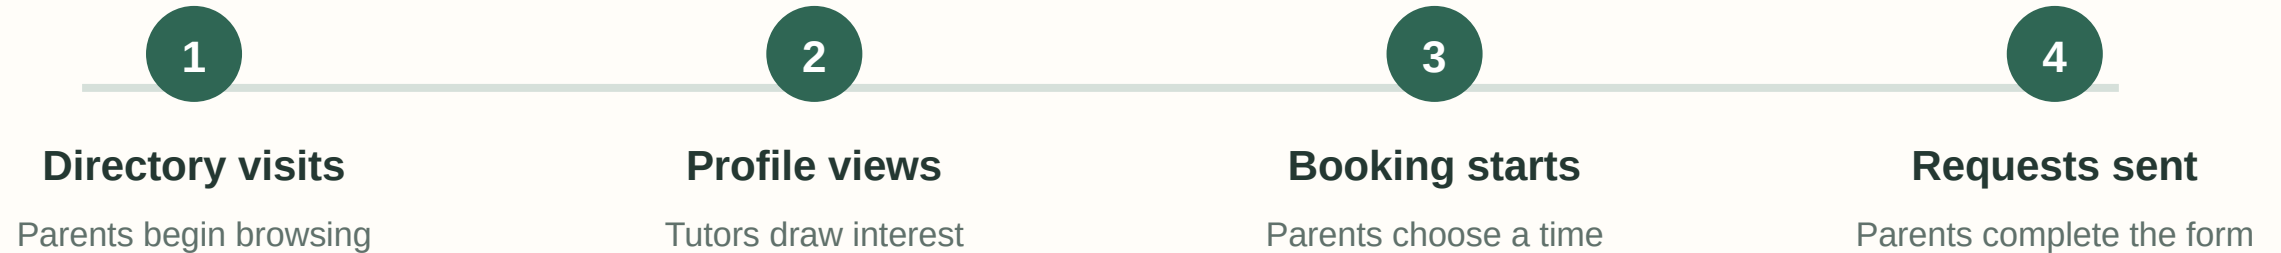

You can add or remove each tutor's available times yourself.

Prototype note

Notifications and schedule updates are simulated and saved on one device for now.

What you can learn from the website

PostHog follows the parent journey without collecting names, emails or student details.

Questions the data answers

Which subjects are families looking for?

Which tutors receive the most profile views?

Where do parents leave before sending a request?

Does Facebook produce visits and booking requests?

Before a real launch

Shared scheduling so every visitor sees the same bookings and open times.

Private sign-in so only you can open the admin view.

Real notifications by email or text when a parent sends a request.

The prototype is ready to review with Dana and a small group of parents.